

Both Sides of the River

Leonard Searcy

SECURITY

You guys wanted to see the cameras, right?

STARKS

Yeah.

JOSEPH

Man you better announce your self, I almost shot you...

16 INT. ELEVATOR DAY

STARKS

Anyone fired from the job lately?

SECURITY

No.

JOSEPH

Anything on the cameras?

SECURITY

There's no cameras on this floor.

STARKS

What about In here?

Sound of the elevator stop.

Joseph and Starks look at the Security guard waiting to hear the answer.

SECURITY

Follow me.

17 INT SECURITY ROOM FLOOR DAY

We see the Security guard walking, leading them down the hallway. Walking ahead of them, he looks ahead at a camera and makes a face signaling something, it isn't noticeable.

18 INT SECURITY ROOM DAY

We see the 3 of them in a room.

SECURITY

See, no one other than Ms. Mbayu and her assistant stopped on that floor last night. And, our cameras on the elevator have been down a few days to answer your question.

STARKS

Was there another security guard working with you last night?

SECURITY

No, just me.

STARKS

Do you know if she had problems with any of her clients?

SECURITY

I don't think so.

STARKS

You don't think so? You have a more certain answer?

SECURITY

No, she had no problems with her clients, I'm sure of it.

STARKS

How do you know? You don't have any cameras down there. You go down on that floor, mix and mingle?

SECURITY

I walk the floors sometimes.

STARKS

Well who watches the cameras?.. Hmm? While you're mixing and mingling who's watching the cameras?

SECURITY

No one was on that floor last night, other than me who called you, and that wasn't until this morning when I found them...

STARKS

You found them? So somebody walked in your building murdered two people and all you have to say is that "you found them?" Well whoopdie fucking do? Dumbass.
